Hong Kong

Delectable dim sum, floating islands, and a one-of-a-kind skyline are just some of Hong Kong's enchanting features. Eat your way across Temple Street Night Market with its fish balls and stinky tofu, or settle in for dim sum at Michelin-starred venues like Tim Ho Wan. For traditional Chinese architecture, head to Ngong Ping Village, then take the tram to the tippy-top of Victoria Peak for skyscraper views.

User Review

I would really appreciate any feedback or suggestions on our planned itinerary for our trip to LA in April. We will be spending 3 nights in LA at the end of a trip starting in SF and driving down Highway 1. We are interested in art, music, beautiful views, good food, good bars, anywhere with a general cool atmosphere :) Not too interested in the Walk of Fame, etc. or Disneyland.

Definitely visit Abbot Kinney when in Venice, the Boardwalk will take you very little time to discover that's where you don't want to be for too long. In Santa Monica, also visit Montana Avenue. Depending where you are, when, there are so many options for dinner it's too long to list - but generally, look for a good happy hour if you want great food for less money.

4 Days were outstanding for me, I literally enjoyed each and every destination especially the optional Group meal on East Coast was delicious. Highly recommended.

From classic European destinations that crop up on most of our bucket lists to exotic Asian getaways, travelling to further-flung places that keep drawing travellers in is a wishful dream we all have. There is no better way to take a break from the world of hustle we all live in and enjoy holidaying with international tour packages.
